All in the Family

Multiple Troupe table collections address a spectrum of design-driven to purpose-driven needs. Gathering tables are simple yet elegant, while Inline tables balance form and function. Training and Troupe T-base tables feature a beautifully refined leg for practical application in modular spaces.

Troupe Gathering

"Coming together is a beginning; Keeping together is progress; Working together is success."

Henry Ford

Troupe InLine

Tailored to pivot between individualized focus or social collaboration, these petite tables offer functional choices, including adjustable glides or durable hollow casters.

Troupe Training

At the core of the Troupe collection lies a unwavering dedication to design excellence and versatility. Troupe unfolds as a cohesive family of solutions that complement each other across a diverse range of applications, whether collaboration, focus, relaxing or a combination of any or all of these.

Gathering

Simple yet effective social hub. Three top shapes, three heights and multiple sizes.

Inline

Foster engagement and focus. Two modesty styles with optional mini-modesty. Casters or glides.

Troupe

Personal or team workspace. Fix, tilt or fold. Casters or glides.

Training

Maximized for modularity. Rearrange with table linking and non-sequential power. Multiple modesty styles.

Beyond Tables

The extended Troupe family includes Sky adjustable height tables, media walls, stools and benches. Troupe continues to grow and adapt to address the fluid landscape of interactive environments.

Troupe encompasses versatility and quality craftsmanship with a balance of strong lines and subtle curves. Legs are formed into a unique, inverted profile. Gathering and Inline tables are layered with dual-tone option. Outfit each table with various power solutions. Conceal wires within the concave leg or the T-base column.
